s Republican stronghold, last fall, is the choice of the Democratic organizations of the five beroughs for President of the Board of Aldermen.

The selection of Senator Straus, whose personal popularity elected him to a seat in the Legislature, was said to have been determined after a conference at which it was decided that in view of the insistence of the Hearst influence in the party that Mayor Hylan be renominated his running mates would have to be of the highest type available.

Straus, who made a record as a de-bater in the Senate, will in all prob-sibility make the race for the nomina-tion, according to a close friend of his yesterday. If he does he will be unop-posed, as with the organization strength hehind him his nomination would be Sheriff Knott is being groomed by his friends for the nomination of Comptroller, as it is generally understood that Comptroller Craig will retire from the field unless he can succeed in displacing Hylan for renomination, in which event he would other the primaries, provided Tammany, id not call upon ex-Governor Alfred E. Smith to run at the head of the ticket.

There are several Tammany district leaders openly aspiring for the nomination for Sheriff, but if any of them is selected the place in all probability will go to John V. Coggey, who has been Under Sheriff for the last four years.

Tammany Wants Hylan Eliminated

Tammany Wants Hylan Eliminated
Tammany would like to see Mayor Hylan eliminated from the race. A few months ago this was regarded as accomplished, the Mayor having consented to be a candidate for the Supreme Court in Brooklyn, but this plan was upset by William Randolph Hearst, who saw in it an attempt to nominate Al Smith for Mayor.
Friends of Al in Tammany are fearful that if Hylan should be renominated and reëlected it might mean the beginning of a successful drive on the part of Hearst to eliminate from politics Smith, who is regarded as the logical successor to Charles F. Murphy as leader of Tammany Hall.
That this is Hearst's ambition is an open secret, as he has never forgiven
Smith's attack upon him in Carnegie Hall when Smith was Governor, when the latter reviewed Hearst's war record and charged that he was loyal to no one, not even to his own country.
During the last gubernatorial campaign Hearst did not give his support to Governor Smith until the last hour, when whatever influence he had proved negligible so far as Smith was concerned.
Tammany is clinging to the hope that Tammany Wants Hylan Eliminated

Tammany is clinging to the hope that Hylan will be driven from public life by the exposures which the Joint Legislative Investigating Committee will make of his administration. It is commonly reported that some of Hylan's erronies in the administration will be shown to have been guilty of corruption in office before the investigation is well under way, and it is hoped by Tammany that the scandals will be

The Tammany slate is far from settled, and it will not be agreed upon until some time in August. But it is certain that in addition to Senator Straus another Democratic member of the Legislature, Charles D. Donohue, the minority floor leader, will be drafted to strengthen the local ticket this fall.

Just what place he will be given has not yet been decided, although there has been considerable talk of having him run for Sheriff in New York County to succeed David H. Knott, or for President of the Borough of Manhatan.

"Cabiria," Gabriele D'Annunzio's photo-play of seven years ago, is to have a re-vival at the Strand Theater the week of July 3.

Georgianna Spelvin, sister of George Spelvin, has been engaged by George Broadburst to create a part in his produc-tion of "The Elton Case."

Michael Goldreyer, of the William Har-ris fr. publicity offices, was married yes-terday to Miss Mildred Kaplan, of 519 Saratega Avenue, Brooklyn.

The gross receipts from the sale of tickets at Loew's New York Roof and American Music Hall Saturday afternoon, July 2, where the returns of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight are to be announced, are to go to the American Committee for De-vastated France and the Navy Club.

William A. Brady's first production of the season. "The Teaser," will open at Stamford, Conn., Friday, July 8. "The Teaser" was written by Martha M. Stanley and Adelaide Mathews and had its trial in Brooklyn recently under the title "Dreamy Eyes." Among those now in the cast are Jane Grey, Faire Emmey, Leonard Willey, Rose Winter, Bruce Elmore, John Cromwell and Ellen Soderstrom. "The Teaser" will have its New York showing Individual to the Playhouse, which Mr. Brady takes over July 1. according to an announcement made Saturday night.

"THE OLD NEST" By DR. FRANK CRANE

The Old Nest, a film story, by Rupert Hughes, is a Goldwyn production. The usual superlatives would be out of place, in describing this photoplay.

It is not Melodrama; it is not Tragedy to appall you; it is not Comedy to amuse you; it is not Sentimentality to affect you to tears or longing.

to tears or longing.
It is-LIFE!

It is—LIFE!

It is that which every outstanding work of creative imagination is. For it is THE COMEDIE HUMAINE—the great gripping, absorbing Drama of the Actual.

All the people in this story are alive. There are no lay figures. You get no impression of stuffed shirts, false whiskers or play acting ures. You get no impression of stuffed shirts, false whiskers or play acting.

Hughes has taken down one wall of the American home of today and you walk in and know the family.

It is of the Mother, the Father and the Children—the trinity of that same plot a hundred million Americans are playing.

Here is Tragedy, not the cheap, manufactured calamity of stage-craft, but the long-drawn Tragedy of inevitable existence—and yet inexpressibly sweet and beautiful.

One of the greatest of all stories because its theme is the greatest of all themes—Life, and Life Now, here, yours, mine.

All bitter and sweet, and sad and glad, and majestic and petty, and divine and pittful!

A film story of Life!

See Tariff as

neavy Republican landslide last time, there are Republicans representing districts which normally are very close to if not actually Democratic.

Plenty of time, perhaps fortunately, will be given the leaders before the final decisions are made on size of the tariff schedules and the details of the new taxation program. For, despite President Harding's great desire for speed, there is going to be very little haste.

The Ways and Means Committee will report the tariff bill probably on

The Ways and Means Committee will report the tariff bill probably on Wednesday. The House is expected to begin debate right after the Fourth of July. About ten days will be given to speeches, it is thought. Then the bill will be sent to the Senate, and referred to the Finance Committee.

Chairman Penrose of this committee thinks the absolute minimum on time in the Senate will be a month, and save in the Senate will be a month, and says it may take two months. Then the bill will be reported to the Senate, which, according to the best calculations, will debate it for a month. This is conservative rather than optimistic.

tive rather than optimistic.

Which brings us to about October 1, with the bill through both houses but without the differences between the two houses smoothed out. Meanwhile the taxation bill probably will have been reported by the Ways and Means Committee and have been passed by the House, though naturally it could make no progress on the Senate side until the tariff bill is gotten out of the way.

Line-Up Reversed

Line-Up Reversed

Nor is there any prospect of the taxation bill being given right of way over the tariff, as desired by such astute Republican leaders as Senator James E. Watson, of Indiana. The agricultural bloc fears that if the East gets the excess profits tax repealed it will not care very much about the tariff.

For the old tariff line-up, so far as the country is concerned, as was pointed out in the Tribune's Washington dispatches last fail, has been exactly reversed. The manufacturers, headed by the automobile and truck makers, now would prefer reciprocity to a high protective tariff. They are not afraid of foreign competition, but on the contrary are anxious for foreign markets. This is the group which in the Payne-Aldrich days was most are Republicans representing cts which normally are very close not actually Democratic.

TELEPHONE SPLICING -A Big Job-Requiring Skill and Patience

Have you ever stopped by an open manhole and looked down at the telephone splicer at work?

With amazing swiftness his nimble fingers pick the right wires from among the 2400 in one large cable and join them with the proper wires in a new length of cable. Each connection must be insulated, boiling wax poured over it and finally the "sleeve" drawn over the new joint and soldered.

Splicing wires in telephone cable may seem to be a small part of the task of supplying new telephone service in New York City. But it is exceedingly important work. 528,000 miles of new wire have been added to the city's telephone system since January 1, 1920. More than 10,000,000 splices had to be made before the lengths of cable containing all this wire could be connected to provide new tracks for talks trains.

The work of the splicer illustrates the intricate, painstaking character of the work of building up the city's telephone system to again provide telephone service when and where you want it.
